

APPLICATIONS NOW BEING ACCEPTED
PART-TIME ADJUNCT ONLINE COMPUTER SCIENCE TEACHER

The mission of MNOHS is to engage, inspire, and educate the whole student for an options-rich future through a challenging, flexible, teacher-developed curriculum; with the encouragement of responsive faculty and staff; within a creative and supportive learning community. A small, teacher-powered online public charter school, MNOHS is an award-winning collaborative environment for board, faculty, staff, students and families across Minnesota and a credible voice for creative, connected online learning.

We are currently accepting applications for a part-time adjunct teacher of computer science. MNOHS teachers and staff work from home. Hours are flexible, although all are required to be online each weekday, Monday through Friday, and to hold regularly scheduled online office hours. Some availability during MNOHS core hours (10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. M-F) is preferred.

To better reflect the diversity of our student body, we especially encourage people of color and of all genders and abilities to apply.

Responsibilities:

- Complete Teaching Online, the MNOHS training course, and participate in ongoing online professional development (synchronous and asynchronous)
- Engage with students, families, and faculty/staff in an interactive online environment (synchronous and asynchronous) to create a student-focused school community and culture
- Develop, build, and teach online learning activities and courses in computer science

Qualifications:

- Pre-service teacher enrolled in approved teacher preparation program or Minnesota teacher's license in Computer Science, Technology or Mathematics
- Thorough knowledge of academic/licensure field content, resources, pedagogy, and assessment
- Excellent communication, teaching, collaboration and strategic skills
- Experience using asynchronous and synchronous communication tools and productivity software in a professional setting
- Interest in online and alternative learning environments
- Commitment to educational equity and each student's success
- Computer with high-speed Internet access and a USB headset
- (Preferred) Experience collaborating with special education staff
- (Preferred) Experience as an online student or in online teaching

Application Process: Applications will be accepted until Monday May 24, 2021 or until a qualified pool of applicants has responded. Complete applications will include a letter of interest addressing your short- and long-term professional goals, a current resume, three reference letters with contact information and your file folder number (if licensed). All documents must be submitted electronically to Elissa Raffa, Executive Director: e.raffa@mail.mnohs.org.

For additional information, please visit our website at <https://mnohs.org>.